Resident Spotlight

ZOLA HARMAN

October, 2018

This month we are spotlighting Zola Harman.

Zola was born and raised in West valley Utah. She was the tenth of 13 children in her family. She grew up with 6 brothers and 6 sisters. They were close to each other. She mother, Ida, was a home maker. She remembers her as the kindest person in her life. He father, Martin, was a farmer and was a strict man.

She met her husband Ted in high school. They often spend time together with a group of friends going on outing. Ted finally asked Zola out and they began to date and after some time were married.

Zola and Ted were happily married for 62 years, and together they have raised three children: Teddie, Jack and Peggy. Zola has five grandchildren, eight great grandchildren and one great greatgrandchild. She is proud of her family and the success they have achieved

After Zola and Ted were married, Ted began to work at Kennecott railroad, and Zola spent many hours serving her family and her community. For many years Zola worked for the LDS welfare services and served as a Relief Society president for her church.

Her hard working and caring for others attitude was never unnoticed. She was offered a job at a doctor's office and enjoyed working there for ten years until she retired.

Zola lives by the advice her mother gave her: keep your hands busy. She always finds projects to take on, weather it is making home improvements, serving others or simply extending her friendship to her neighbors.

Zola is a very knowledgeable person and a great conversation partner. She enjoys reading and keeps up with current events.

She always has a positive outlook on life. "You ought to make your life worth living," she says.

Zola and Ted enjoyed traveling together and visited many countries, including Japan, New Zealand, Russia and Egypt to name a few. She also traveled all over the Unites States. Her favorite adventure was to watch ships passing through the Panama Cannel.

We are so pleased to have Zola in our community. Thank you, Zola for being the great person you are.
